The Illinois Central has placed on sale in the principal financial markets of the world $5,000,000 of 3½ per cent. gold bonds. This issue is part of an authorized issue of $20,000,000 of bonds on the Louisville and St. Louis divisions of this system. Subscriptions were opened today and will close Wednesday at 3 p. m. The bonds run until 1953, and are secured by a first mortgage on the Louisville division between Louisville and Memphis. It is expected that Louisville capitalists will invest liberally in these bonds, and quite a number have already subscribed. President Fish would prefer that people living on the line of the road would invest in the securities to the exclusion of foreigners.

POLICE COURT.

Only Three Offenses Before Judge
Pro-Tem Harris.

Judge Sanders is still ill, and this morning Judge pro-tem Harris presided over the police court.

Chas. Parks, the "hoodoo" dancer, charged with abusing Hattie Sellers and pursuing her with a knife, was acquitted.

Wm. Coleman was charged with abusing his wife, and with throwing an ice cream freezer full of ashes at her. He said he was drinking at the time, and the court let him off with $20 and cost.

Howard Johnson, colored, was charged with abusing a man named Grant. He was fined $5 and cost.

MILLIONAIRE MURDERER.

Dr. Charles Simmons, St. Louis,
Kills His Bookkeeper,
For Insulting His Daughter.

Frankfort Matters—Gov. Taylor
Claims the Lead in Tennessee Senatorial Contest.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 13.—Dr. Chas. Simmons, a millionaire, today shot and killed Emil Davidson, his bookkeeper, in his own office. Simmons claims that Davidson had insulted his daughter. Simmons is the proprietor of well known patent medicines and one of the wealthiest men in this city.

GOOD THING FOR EVANSVILLE.

Rates On Grain Shipments To the South Reduced By Illinois Central.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 17. Because of competition to the South, Evansville is to profit very largely, and in the future shippers of grain and grain products will have the same privileges accorded them that are enjoyed by those of Louisville and Cincinnati. Before the Illinois Central acquired the Ohio Valley property the Louisville and Nashville road had a monopoly of the business out of this city south, and as a result shippers by way of this city were compelled to pay about three cents per hundred more than the shippers of either Louisville or Cincinnati. Since coming to this city the Illinois Central has been making a big fight for Southern business, and the new privileges to be accorded this city are a result of that railroad war. Large amounts of grain will now be shipped south from this center.

Cremated Alive.

Princeton, Ky., Jan. 17.—Jack Markham, a well known and worthless negro, was burned to death in a shanty which he occupied as a dwelling. When found the remains presented a horrible spectacle, both legs and arms having been burned from the body. Markham was drunk when he entered his home, and while sleeping probably kicked over a lighted lamp.

A FEW BILLS.

Some of the Ideas of Our Kentucky Legislators.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 18.—Among the bills introduced in the legislature today was one in the House abolishing the office of commonwealth's attorney, one in the Senate creating a penitentiary board and a bill prohibiting Sunday baseball in cities outside of Louisville.

GOV. TAYLOR HOPEFUL

Claims That He is Ahead in the Senatorial Race.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 18.—Gov. Taylor claims that he is in the lead in the United States Senate race. He may combine with Senator Turley.

TWO-HEADED SCORPION.

Mr. Frank Futrell Brings a Curiosity to Paducah.

Mr. Frank Futrell, who is on the jury in the circuit court, today brought to the city a peculiar curiosity in the shape of a scorpion with two heads.

He looked the reptile yesterday while moving hay, and says it could not turn around owing to the fact that it had a head on each extremity, and looked like two scorpions with had almost swallowed each other.

It was of the common species, and Mr. Futrell says it did its moving like a trolley car, first one way and then the other, without turning around. It was taken to Lang's drug store this morning and placed in alcohol.

LEFT A WAIF.

A Sorrowing Mother Leaves a
Babe in a Basket.

A woman with red hair, blue eyes and wearing a black satin skirt, stopped at Mr. Tobe Kettler's boarding house, on South Third street, about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and said she desired to remain all night. She carried a basket. She shortly afterwards said she was going out to see a brother and would leave her basket.

About 5 o'clock infant cries emanated from the basket, and the people there discovered that it contained a baby about six weeks old. They concluded the woman did not intend to return, from the following note, found inside:

"Kind friends of this world: I will leave my little baby for some good mother to raise, and I hope to see and know that they will raise her the best they can, as I have not to leave this world. There is no one who knows my troubles but God in heaven."

The waif is still at Mr. Kettler's, and while Marshall Collins has a clue, there is nothing definite. The woman may have committed suicide.

The mother of the infant was seen at the Union depot this morning by Officer Hoyer and several others. She went into the waiting room, warmed and then left. She had red hair, blue eyes, wore a black broad-clothed satin skirt and a black cape.

Marriage This Afternoon.
Mr. J. W. Leitz, aged 36, a farmer, and Mrs. Maggie C. LaGore, aged 50, of Shilohland, Livingston county, were married by County Tully at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

STOKES ACQUITTED.

Graves County Man Charged
With Illicit Whiskey Traffic.

Burrell Stokes, of the Fulton Creek vicinity of Graves county, who was arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal La Rue, was tried before U. S. Commissioner Puryear yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock for selling whiskey without a license, and acquitted. He was brought in Saturday afternoon.

TELEPHONE SYSTEM

To Bandana, Ballard County, is Talked of Now.

Paducah Merchants All Speak in Favor of the Enterprise.

It is probable that in the near future a telephone line will be extended from Paducah to Bandana, Ballard county, and intermediate points, which would include Maxon's Mills, Woodville, Grahamville and many other small places.

Gentlemen from these localities were in the city today conferring with Manager A. L. Joyner, and it is thought that the project will be a go.

All of the most prominent residents have signified a willingness to subscribe money to further the move. One gentleman agreeing to give $100 and several $25.

The advantage to Paducah merchants of such a system would be as manifold as it would be to the residents of the respective places. One of the gentlemen from Bandana said today:

"Paducah would get hundreds of dollars' worth of trade that now goes to Cairo and Wickliffe, if we had telephone connection with her. Scores of times we have to telephone to Wickliffe or Cairo, in cases of emergency, and have the goods brought to Ogden's Landing, and go there for them."

"It would be much easier and quicker to order from Paducah, but we have no telephone communication and consequently would have to come all the way to Paducah after it."

It would be an excellent idea for local merchants to assist in the enterprise.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

The New Building of the Second
Baptist Church

Now Paid For—Will Be Dedicated
Early Next Month—Handsome Structure.

The congregation of the Second Baptist church, at Ninth and Ohio, of which Mr. L. T. Wilson is pastor, has now finished paying for its building, and the church has been deeded to it by the First church.

This pretty church was erected several years ago, Mrs. Nimrod Long, of Russellville, now deceased, donating the lot upon which it is built.

Rev. Gilbert Dobbs, formerly pastor of the First church, but now of Franklin, Va., will dedicate the church some time early next month. Rev. Dobbs rendered valuable services in securing the church, and for this reason will dedicate it.

MISSING BOY.

A Benton Lad Has Not Been Heard From

Since He Left Home Two Weeks Ago—Considerable Anxiety is Felt.

John Nickells, an eighteen-year-old boy, left Benton two weeks ago on a trip to Grand Rivers to collect money due him for work. He left intending to return the following Wednesday or Thursday. Since then his mother has been unable to hear anything or to find anyone who has seen or heard anything from him after he crossed the river at Birmingham, Marshall county.

A party from Grand Rivers reported yesterday that he had not been seen in Grand Rivers. His mother has written to the person whom he went to see several times, but can't hear anything from him from there.

The mother has a large family of small children. This, added to her other troubles, has almost prostrated her.

Given One Month.

Allen Nuckolls, colored, who stole $1.50 from Mr. Tobe Stegar's cash drawer, was sentenced to the county jail for one month today.

It is reported that Bob Blanks, the Mayfield rapist, has been captured, but is being held for a larger reward.

BERRY'S WIFE ARRIVES.

She and Her Attorney, Hon. F.
G. Blood, Are at the
New Richmond Hotel.

Paid No Attention to the Remains
—After Berry's Effects,
Which Are Out of Their Reach.

WIDOW AND LAWYER ARRIVE.

Mrs. Sadie Miller Berry, wife of the dead "millionaire" tramp, who lies cold in death at the Vance undertaking establishment, accompanied by Hon. Fred G. Blood, a member of the Illinois general assembly, arrived in the city over the St. Louis division of the Illinois Central at 7:30 o'clock this morning from Mt. Vernon, the widow's home.

Mrs. Berry is a young woman, with fair complexion and blue eyes, and was dressed in black. She and her attorney went to the New Richmond hotel. When a reporter called he was informed that the attorney was out, and that Mrs. Berry had been instructed to keep her mouth shut. They were to meet Dr. Robertson, who qualified as administrator of the estate yesterday, at 11 o'clock this morning, when it would be determined what disposition to make of the remains.

BERRY'S MARRIAGE.

On June 2 Berry was married at Mt. Vernon, Ill., to Miss Sadie Miller. He took a wedding journey to Salem behind a horse said to be worth $20,000. He engaged the entire second floor of the hotel. He decorated his bride and his horse with roses until they looked as though they had just arrived from a Los Angeles, Cal., flower carnival, and drove about the streets, followed by a crowd of urchins, among whom he scattered coin, to watch them scramble for it.

HIS TROUBLES BEGIN.

Berry's troubles began with his marriage. He soon tired of his wife and deserted her. Then he was arrested. His mother-in-law sued him for his wife's board bill, and the millionaire was soon in jail for all sorts of offenses down to plain drunks. At the time of his death a suit was pending for divorce, and his available cash was tied up in such a way that the man who was supposed to be a millionaire was on the point of going to a charity hospital. He once declared he intended to blow in his money until he had only $100,000 left. Whether he succeeded, or even did better, is not known, as no one ever could learn anything of his finances.

BERRY'S OLD HOME.

Berry was 56. He was born in New York, but spent the most of his life tramping. He was a son of the late Dr. Berry, a noted physician of New York State and of good family. He was believed to be spending the last remnants of his patrimony when the accident which ended in his death overtook him.

THE BERRY ESTATE.

A dispatch from Mt. Vernon, Ill., to the St. Louis Chronicle says:

"The report of the death of the 'Tramp Millionaire,' Jim Berry, at Paducah, Ky., has revived interest in Berry and his financial affairs, and regarding what disposition has been made of his estate. Berry had filed suit for divorce from Mrs. Sadie Miller Berry, and she has filed suit merely for separate maintenance, but both cases are still unsettled."

If any one here knows as to whether Berry made a will or otherwise disposed of his fortune they will not divulge the fact, but when Mrs. Berry was seen this morning by your correspondent she stated that she would employ all legal means to protect her interest as wife in Berry's estate and that to that end she had employed the best legal talent obtainable. She seemed to think Berry's estate very large, but would not make an estimate. If Berry has made a will and left Mrs. Berry out she says that she will undoubtedly contest the will.

Hon. Fred G. Blood, a member of the present general assembly of Illinois, has been retained by Mrs. Berry as one of her attorneys, and he left for Paducah, Ky., this afternoon to represent her there.

While in Gloversville, N. Y., last summer Mr. Blood investigated Berry's financial affairs and found that Berry had been possessed of a very valuable estate. It is held by Attorney Blood, however, that he could not convey away Mrs. Berry's interest in this, and she will contest the sales. It is probable that Berry's body will be brought here for interment.

AFTER BOODLE, NOT BERRY.

Although Mrs. Berry and her attorney came over early this morning, no inquiries other than casual ones, were made about the remains. They did not visit the undertaking establishment. The first thing done was to employ Attorney L. K. Taylor to assist them. They were in conference with Dr. Robertson at the hotel in the forenoon, but nothing was done.

Manager Powell, of the New Richmond, has possession of Berry's trunk, with the papers, and will hold it until the board bill of $40 or more is paid.

is paid. It is understood that Administrator Robertson has the dead man's watch, and Undertaker Nance has the body. The wife has nothing but a peek of trouble. It is evident that she and her attorney are after Berry's papers. They cannot secure them, however, without first liquidating all bills.

This afternoon the two attorneys informed a reporter that nothing definite had been done, and that they supposed administrator Robertson would look after the remains and see to their burial. There may be very valuable papers in the trunk, but the hotel has a prior claim on them.

It is said that Berry has a fine house, worth $2,000, near Mt. Vernon, and some other personal property. Attorney Bloodgood informed a train man coming from Mt. Vernon this morning that Berry had spent $20,000 in ten months.

NO GENERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Up to this afternoon Undertaker Nance had received no instructions relative to the remains. They are still lying on the cooling board, partially dressed. The dead man was brought to a shave this morning.

WARRANT NEVER SERVED.

Marshall Collins stated to a reporter that the warrant against Berry never had been served, and that the report that he had been required to put up $70 for his bond was a mistake.

NEW COMPLICATIONS.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Berry, accompanied by her attorneys, went before Judge Tully at the courthouse and applied for appointment as administratrix of the estate, asking that Judge Tully set aside the appointment of Dr. Robertson. Judge Tully said he had already appointed Dr. Robertson, and sent for the latter's attorneys, Messrs. Lightfoot and Crice, who claim Mrs. Berry could not qualify, even should she be appointed, as she is a non-resident.

The administrator states that the body has been held to be claimed by the relatives. Berry's wife has been here all day and up to 4 p. m. had not claimed the body. The remains will be buried tomorrow.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 18, 1898

THE News continues to harp on the postoffice. Their assertions in the past have proven so unreliable, and it is so evident that they don't know anything about it, the wonder is they don't get tired.

COL. I. B. NALL, of Louisville, has announced his candidacy for Commissioner of Agriculture on the State Democratic ticket, just as if the place had not been promised to Populist Taylor as a recompense for laying aside his congressional aspirations!

OUR Democratic friends who are felicitating themselves over the little Republican scrap in Ohio must not overlook the fact that trouble is brewing in the Democratic camp. The overtures of Mr. Richard Croker are meeting with a coldness on the part of the silverites that presages all sorts of fun within the next two years.

THE Council, in their action killing the curfew law, acted very unwisely. It can safely be stated that Paducah has as many boys, if not more boys, on the streets at night, than any city of its size in the United States. Marshal Collins, from his long experience in office, knows where this leads to, and the Council should have enacted the law.

MAYOR LANG in his desire to tell Uncle Sam how to run the postoffice, is going beyond his duties. If he will see that those city laws that have been a dead letter on the books for years, are enforced, he will gain the plaudits of a long-suffering public. While the people of Rowlandtown and in all parts of the city should have free delivery, the way to get it is to work through the Postmaster, and not the Mayor.

THE Louisville Dispatch says that the proposed changes in the boundaries of the Eleventh and Eighth congressional districts whereby it is hoped to render the Eighth safely Democratic is not a gerrymander. That statement is something like that of one of the officials of the Kentucky Trust Co., now defunct, that its late manager who wrecked the bank, was not guilty of theft, but that he had merely borrowed about seventy-five thousand dollars without the consent of the directors.

THE non-partisan board of commissioners to look after the state penitentiaries and charitable institutions is so important a measure that the Democrats don't want its efficacy for good spoiled by passing it upon the recommendation of a Republican governor. Hence our solons, who are at Frankfort, ostensibly for the interest of the state, but in reality to make campaign capital for Democracy to be used at the coming state election, will postpone that most valuable and needed piece of legislation. It is to be regretted that our lawmakers cannot rise above partisanship, that they can never forget their party affiliation, even in the matters of prison legislation.

SENATOR CHAS. J. BRONSTON, of Lexington, shows signs of returning sanity far beyond the majority of his free silver fellow statesmen. It has been the intention of the radical free silver members of the State Senate to discipline the Sound Money Democrats by declining to confirm the appointment of Dr. Wiley for superintendent of the Lexington asylum, on the ground that he is a gold bug. The fact that Dr. Wiley has made an excellent record thus far cuts no figure at all with these advocates of Bryanism. But Senator Bronston has astounded his party and pleased every fair-minded man in the state by saying that he will do all in his power to get Wiley confirmed.

THE efforts of the Louisville Dispatch to get the present legislature to adopt some radically partisan legislation are extremely ludicrous. Something must be done to save the "honah" of the above paper, and to which it can point after the legislature has passed into desuetude, and say "we did it," it was done by our advice," etc. The state will remain safely Democratic, if—the negro can be disfranchised. Election laws must be passed to prevent the wicked Republicans from committing theft, fraud and corruption. "The Democrats must either take steps to protect the ballot box by law, or lose the state to the Republicans."

When People are Suffering From Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Colds, They Need to Know of a Discovery the Fame of Which is "World-Wide."

More men, women, and even little children have been suffering with rheumatism and neuralgia the present year than ever before. Statistics from all over the country show this doctors' reports prove it. Possibly the unusual weather has had something to do with it, but there is one great reason back of it all. The great cause of rheumatism and neuralgia, or even muscular cold in the back, is uric acid in the blood. This uric acid should be thrown out of the system, and can be if the kidneys are only in a strong and healthy condition, but, being weakened, these great organs are not able to throw the uric acid from the system, and so it gets into the blood, poisons the blood, settles around the joints, inflames the muscles and causes what we call rheumatism and neuralgia.

Is this not clear? Can you not readily see that there is only one way to cure these troubles, and that is by keeping the kidneys in a strong and healthy condition? If they are kept strong and well and drive the uric acid from the blood, there will be no more rheumatism or neuralgia. In every corner of the globe, including India, Africa and Australia, it is acknowledged that there is but one discovery which can or ever does fight the battle against uric acid, and drive it from the body. That discovery is known universally throughout the world as Warner's Safe Cure.

In writing upon this subject, Mr. William Edward Rosbon, surgeon of the Royal Navy of England, said: "I conscientiously and emphatically state that I have been able to give more relief and effect more cures by the use of Warner's Safe Cure than by all other medicines in the British Pharmacopoeia."

Dr. N. Byer, of Wurtzburg, Germany, said:

"I have prescribed Warner's Safe Cure constantly to those suffering from kidney and liver diseases, and especially rheumatism and neuralgia. In some instances where the case seemed hopeless, I have seen the sufferer restored to complete health, greatly to my surprise and gratification."

through bribery, corruption and fraud, or steal it themselves," is the pitiful cry of Kentucky Bryanism. As Kentucky has gone Democratic, with one exception, from time immemorial, it is possible that the Democrats have been stealing it themselves. In any event, it is somewhat ridiculous to accuse the Republicans of Kentucky of perpetrating fraud and of being able to outwit the Democracy at their own game.

ONE of the most satisfactory commercial features of 1897 has been the increased demand abroad for corn. During the month of December nearly twice as much corn went to Europe as in the corresponding month of 1896. The people of Europe are slowly learning that corn is good for men as well as beast. The total exports of corn last year amounted to 186,000,000 bushels, or nearly 70,000,000 bushels more than in any previous year. In the six years preceding 1897 the average annual exportations of corn was only 66,000,000 bushels. It is clear, therefore, that the various efforts which have been made to bring this king of American cereals into favor for foreigners are beginning to bear fruit. There is no country in the world that can in any wise compete with the United States in growing corn, and if we can establish a large and increasing market abroad for the product, it will bring our farmers untold wealth. What is most needed to insure a general demand for corn abroad is a knowledge of preparing it for the table. Of the large amount of cornmeal sent to Ireland during the famine many years ago, much was wasted, as the poor people could add nothing to it but water and did not even know how to prepare hoe-cakes.

Those patriots who insisted during the discussion of the tariff bill before congress that the adoption of a protective tariff would result disadvantageously to our export trade will do well to revise their speeches before they attempt to make use of them for campaign documents in 1898. The official statement of November exports shows that the value of articles exported from the United States in that month was seven million dollars greater than in November, 1896. The figures for the eleven months of the year 1897 show a gain of $86,000,000 over the corresponding eleven months of 1896. A study of the details of these figures must be distressing to those who staked their reputations as statesmen and financiers upon the assertion that our exports of manufactures would certainly fall off under high protection. The exportation of manufactures increased in eleven months of 1897 twenty-seven million dollars in round numbers as compared with the corresponding months of the preceding year, a gain of more than 12 per cent.

specialists, the disease steadily developed and I rapidly grew weaker. I resorted to the use of Warner's Safe Cure. It promptly relieved the painful symptoms and I conscientiously say that my present good health is solely due to Warner's Safe Cure.

Hon. E. A. Stone, judge of the supreme court of Australia, declares: "I have used Warner's Safe Cure on many occasions, being subjected to complaints which caused depression of spirits, and the use of this wonderful discovery has been invaluable."

Society & Gossip

EVENTS OF THIS WEEK

Monday, Jan. 17.—Mrs. W. F. Bradshaw entertained a small party of friends.
Tuesday, Jan. 18.—Mrs. R. H. Woolfolk entertained at croquet at the Whitfield home, corner of Seventh and Court streets, complimentary to Miss Inez Whitfield, of Clarksville.
Wednesday, Jan. 19.—The Young Ladies' Cinque club will be entertained by Miss Blanche Bloom at 2 o'clock.
Thursday, Jan. 20.—Mrs. George Flournoy will entertain the Magazine club at her home on Seventh and Harrison streets.
Friday, Jan. 21.—"Miss Francis of Yale," at Morton's, will prove a pleasant diversion of the week.

About every man and woman with any claim to social recognition was present at last night's function, unless kept away by mourning or absence from the city. Among the beautiful matrons present were: Mrs. Newbold Pusher, Mrs. Royal Raiment, Mrs. Olwaiz Thayer, Mrs. Lord Howe Stanning and Mrs. J. Gedding-Gadding.

The most important and brilliant incident of the week was the concert at the Castoria on Monday night.
Mrs. Bonds Tooburn, in a gown of velvet and satin, and wearing many of her famous jewels, had with her in her box Mrs. Allior Show, who looked remarkably well in a gown of rose pink. Among others in the audience were: Mr. and Mrs. Kommanbut Tonite, Mr. and Mrs. Buxham Roobiz and Mr. and Mrs. Richer Mudd. Mrs. Muchinprint entered late, also wearing costly clothing.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Damme Experiences will give a grand ball in February.
After a delightful visit to Miss Martha Leech, Miss Juliet Richardson left Saturday morning for her home in Louisville.
Miss Clara Thompson will have as her guest in a few days Miss Georgia Warren, of Evansville, Ind.
Miss Baird, of Lebanon, Tenn., left today for her home, after a visit to Mrs. John P. Weeks.

With the mid-winter season the social festivities have reached their zenith, and even for people who do not go to dances and large entertainments there are no end of occasions when it is necessary to wear smarter and more elaborate gowns than those that are intended for street wear.
Every smart dinner gown has long sleeves which reach down even over the hand. The sleeves must be of the sheerest possible material, mull, chiffon, lace or net and must combine prettily with the colors of the frock.

Nothing is more appropriate than the broad silk of flowered effect for dinner gowns. The trimming should consist of a jeweled bertha or yoke, and wide ash of net or ribbon. The velvet coat is the coat of the season, the three-quarter length is to riably attended with the most satisfactory results."

Jai Jai Ram Missur, a prominent railroad man of India, says:

"I was attacked by the fatal disease dropsy as a result of rheumatic troubles. My whole body was filled with water and my kidneys refused to work. I tried various remedies and skillful surgeons in vain. At last I was told to prepare for death. I began the use of Warner's Safe Cure, and it effected a complete cure for which I cannot be too grateful."

The list of names of American men and women who have been cured by the use of this wonderful discovery extends into the hundreds of thousands. Many of them are very prominent in legislative, professional and social circles. Their names alone would more than fill this paper. Many of them have been enduring pain, have had swollen joints, headaches, unaccountable languor, dull, and indefinite pains in various parts of the body; have been restless, sleepless, and depressed; have had lack of appetite, lack of energy and lack of all ambition; but they are today in the enjoyment of perfect health. A few names of those who cordially recommended Safe Cure are: Bishop Wilson, Mr. Jesse Larrabee, Dr. Gunn, Mrs. Annie Jenness Miller, Dr. Woodbury, Mrs. Willard and Rev. Dr. Rankin.

In addition thereto, this great discovery has been scientifically analyzed by Prof. S. A. Lattemore, one of the leading chemists of America, and Analyzer of Food and Medicines for the New York State Board of Health, who has investigated the process of manufacture and unhesitatingly says that "it is conducted with extreme care according to the best methods, and that Safe Cure is free from all poisonous and deleterious substances."

The facsimile of the package is given herewith. It has become a synonym for good health, the world over, and gives what no other remedy can give—freedom from disease and the blessings of life which good health always confers.

PLAIN FACTS.

When in doubt don't talk.

Nearly every woman knows a man that is the slowest mortal on earth.

A man is hopelessly dull when he doesn't know when he is being made fun of.

More people should rejoice that they get what they deserve instead of complaining.
The girl that is so fortunate as to have her admirers shower bouquets of American beauties upon her should know the fact that when the pretty blossoms begin to droop and shatter they may yet do good service. There is a delightful fragrance to the petals, and if they are separated and scattered in a drawer or handkerchief box they will give to the contents a subtle odor, the delicate fragrance of the fresh rose. Care must be taken not to mass the petals or to place the under garments where the air cannot penetrate before they are dry, or they will mold.

A pretty young woman who sings in public preserves all her bouquets as soon as they begin to show signs of withering. She takes them from the water and lets them dry. They will remain in this state for some time, and then, when the petals begin to fall, she collects them and eventually they are made into a sofa pillow, upon which she can lay her pretty head and dream of past and future conquests.

MAYOR OF LINCOLN, N. J.

Mr. Drake Feels It His Duty to Recommend Paine's Celery Compound.

The youngest and most bustling city in the United States—Founded last April, Lincoln boasts a sewerage system, electric lights, macadamized roads, trolley cars, telephone franchise and a water plant.

From a hamlet to a town—to a city, in this incredible short time Lincoln has grown with the wonderful progressiveness looked for only in the West—a splendid example of the pertinacity of one strong man.

Like most forceful men, Mayor Drake must see results before giving his approval; but when convinced he speaks out his mind without fear or favor of any one.

There is no hesitation among Mayor Drake's friends in saying that Paine's celery compound has been of the utmost help in enabling him to do a prodigious amount of work, and to get rid of that insomnia that at one time resulted from every prolonged effort. Mayor Drake himself says:

Lincoln, Middlesex Co., N. J., Oct. 30, 1907.

Gentlemen—I have been getting Paine's celery compound from our local druggist. After sixteen hours work each day, I sleep eight hours each night like a baby, and attribute much of the strengthening of my James E. Berry, the so-called millionaire tramp, who died at the New Richmond hotel yesterday, came near occupying a pauper's grave. Mayor Lang had already been sent for to take charge of the remains on behalf of the city, when a local undertaker agreed to prepare them for burial.

Dr. Berry's reputed wealth there is nothing visible save a few old clothes. The telegram from Mr. Vernon ordering Marshal Collins to take charge of Berry's effects and permit no one to have them indicates that Mrs. Millington Berry is mercenary, and comes to Paducah expecting to get something valuable as a result of his death. In this, however, she is mistaken. All she can find will not be worth hauling to the depot.

The Elks had an unusual visitor last night. A crowd of them had assembled in their hall in the third story of the Leech building, awaiting a called meeting, when they heard a patter outside, and in a few moments saw a billy-goat of the most pronounced type scamper into the lodge room. He began eating the altar cloth, when the members called a halt and forcibly ejected William. He was led down to the steps, but in a few minutes was back again. This time he was locked out. Sir William had climbed two flights of stairs to become an Elk, and the general supposition of the Elks is that he was the Masonic goat and got into the wrong hall.

Capt. Joe Fowler says he will always oppose any effort to curtail anything that will result in any neglect at Oak Grove. He was in the council at a time, he informed the council last night, when the graveyard was full of cows, hogs, "chumps," sage brush and other necessities. It was one of the first to begin the improvement of the cemetery. "When a man starts out on his journey to the hereafter," he remarked, "he wants a nice place to start from."

"Daddy" Peal is slightly disabled. The combination that resulted in his present plight was a rat, a cross-eyed boy, and his own walking stick. Yesterday afternoon Lockup Keeper Bob Menifee caught a rat in a trap, and carried the wire cage to the sidewalk in front of the city hall to have the rodent exterminated. Several followed him out to see the fun. Among them was "Daddy" Peal and

AN INTERESTING QUESTION.

Some years ago there appeared in the North American Review an article in which the author or authors—if it was a woman—asks with every appearance of seriousness, "Is it wrong to lie?" To do the writer justice at the outset it should be said that she does not question that it is wrong to lie under an ordinary temptation, but wishes to be told whether it is possible that there should ever be circumstances warranting the telling of an untruth or even the disregard of an oath. She asks the question and does not attempt to answer it, but it was evident from her tone that she believes the lie-occasional to be excusable or even praiseworthy. In support of this opinion she cites the case of an English royal personage who was quite conspicuous at that time, and who, being called as a witness in a divorce case, where the telling of the truth would have blasted the reputation of a woman, is said to have "perjured himself like a gentleman." Again she spoke of a woman of an older time, who was almost as well known in Jerusalem as the hero of the foregoing story in London,—one Rahab. It will be remembered that Rahab took the messengers of the Israelites into her house and told a lie for their protection. This earned her immediate reward and the veneration of the chosen people ever after. She also cited the case of the fugitive slaves who were passed over by the underground road and of the many evasions and direct denials of the truth which aided their escape.

We mention this surprising ethical proposition not to discuss it but to remark upon the fact of its being made. It is simply another indication of the extent to which the latitude of thought which has always existed is finding its outlet by virtue of a new latitude of speech. It is wrong to lie, dishonorable to lie and cowardly to lie, yet lies have been told by very good people in all ages when the temptations were strong enough and are told today with equal frequency, but this does not make the practice right and the transgressor must settle his misdeed with his own conscience. It is a bit startling to see this subject so coolly discussed and many of those who cannot look into their own records and say that they have always been truthful will be inclined to say that the old plan of individual responsibility for the individual offense is the best one.

This is the way a Cincinnati judge sentenced a man to four months in the work house for hitting his wife with a poker: "And now I shall have to say a word to you, my friend, and as the hawthorn petals of May before you will be in a position to indulge again in the delights of solo poker, I sincerely hope your winter will, under the circumstances, prove as comfortable as you could hope."

This will be on the evening of January 31, and will, we are told, be the grandest entertainment ever given among the craft.
